COMPANY: American Airlines

PROMOTION: Military Appreciation Special Fares

OFFER TIME: Ticketing through Dec 31, 2002 (travel through Feb. 12, 2004)

DETAILS: American Airlines has launched a new system-wide fare sale for travel exclusively for members of the U.S. Air Force, Army, Coast Guard, Marines, Navy, National Guard and Reserves on active duty, as well as their dependents. The special fares require only a three-day advance purchase and are available to all 250 airports worldwide served by American and American Eagle for travel through Feb. 12, 2004. Because return from deployment for military personnel could extend over a lengthy time period, the fare sale allows ticketing through Dec. 31, 2003, and travel through Feb. 12, 2004. Customers can also earn AAdvantage miles with these fares. Domestic sale fares require a three-day advance purchase, a Saturday night minimum stay and 30-day maximum stay. The fares are non-refundable, but no change fees will apply for changes made prior to departure. Fares are applicable all days of the week and have no embargo dates. Reservations may be made by telephone, but the appropriate military identification must be presented in person at the time of purchase at an American Airlines airport ticket counter, American Airlines Travel Center or a travel agency. These special military fares are not available via the Internet.

For schedule and fare information, eligible customers should consult their travel agent or call American Airlines toll-free at 1-800-433-7300.

TORTOLA FOR TWO

Set on a mile-long swatch of powdery white sand, the Long Bay Beach and Resort is considered one of the finest on Tortola. It's now saluting America's finest by presenting 10 lucky couples with a free "Romance Package". How romantic is it? Well, there'll be oceanview accommodations, four candlelight dinners for two, champagne in room upon arrival, an island tour (or one-day car rental) and complimentary daytime tennis, nine-hole pitch-and-putt, snorkeling equipment, roundtrip airport/ferry transfers, and live ocean side entertainment. This is a first-come, first-served giveaway, so call 877/906-2525 as soon as possible. For those who don't get one of the ten slots, Long Bay is giving those who served in the Iraq war a 50 percent discount on stays through Dec. 31, dropping the price of a room to $77/night, including breakfast. For more info go to <http://www.longbay.com/>

A SALUTE FROM SIN CITY

Over sixty of Vegas' top hotels have joined together in a promotion called "Operation Welcome Home" which will net military personnel a 20 percent discount at any of the participating properties (the Aladdin, the Luxor, Excalibur, Paris Las Vegas, Stratosphere, Terribles and many others). Along with discounts on rooms, there should be some savings on dining, shopping and entertainment. Before jumping at the 20 percent, however, we'd suggest shopping around, as one often sees deeper discounts with such companies as Expedia, Hotels.com and Quikbook. For more info, go to <http://www.vegasfreedom.com/> (click on the "Great deals" section) or call 877/VISITLV.

USO And Burlington Coat Factory Launch National Military Family Support Effort

Burlington Coat Factory has begun a Military Family Support Campaign to assist military personnel and their families. Members of all branches of the U.S. military and their immediate dependents showing valid military identification, will receive 10% off their total purchase in any Burlington Coat Factory store nationwide through the end of the year. Customers will have the opportunity to offer their support for military families by purchasing a yellow ribbon for $1 or more at registers in Burlington Coat Factory stores. Customer donations will directly benefit the USO and its programs established to benefit the families of military uniformed personnel.

CRUISE NEWS

The savings don't end on land. We've heard from the folks at Cruises Only <http://www.cruisesonly.com/> that Norwegian Cruise Lines is marking down for the military as well. Some of the discounted sailings include a 14-night "Exotic Caribbean" itinerary aboard the Norwegian Dawn for just $399, and seven night New York-Bermuda voyages (aboard the Norwegian Sea) also for $399. Contact Cruises Only or your favorite cruise agency for more information.
